INDIANA ROOM
PAMPHLET FILE

Terre Haute, Ind. May 3, 1939

FROM: Graves Registration Project, Vigo County
Terre Haute, Ind. Memorial Hall, 219 Ohio St.

TO: Fairbanks Memorial Library (Miss Crawford)

PROJECT: To prepare a somprehensive record as of July 1, 1938 of the graves in the State of Indiana of deceased honorably discharged veterans of the Army, Navy, and other military establishments of the United States (including Confederate States of America, Vigo County.

SPONSOR: State of Indiana - Adjutant General

We are submitting to you a list of our work accomplished so far on this project. The work on this project started December 13, 1938. The men on this work are Veterans of the World War.

We have completed 74 out of 131 Cemeteries in Vigo County, that is Field Checked. Total Soldiers located so far 3282. These figures, I would say, are about 60% of the total number of soldiers we will have located when completed.

There will be two records kept, one by the Adjutant General of the State of Indiana and one in Vigo County. Also maps of each Cemetery showing exactly where each soldier is burried, are being made.

If we can be of any service to you, we would only be two willing to assist you in anyway possible. Let us know by mail or call at the Memorial Hall, 219 Ohio St.

Yours very truly,

Edward J. Kelly
County Supervisor

GRAND ARMY of the REPUBLIC (GAR) GENERAL

For three days, drums beat, flags waved, people cheered

Veterans (GAR)

TS 7-1-84

A three-day state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic in Terre Haute in May 1910 was a major event for the entire area.

The 31st annual encampment opened with a reception for state officers of the GAR and the Women's Relief Corps, and the Ladies of the GAR presented an American flag to Wiley High School.

After lunch there was a parade of Civil War vets followed by the dedication of the Soldiers and Sailors Monument on the courthouse lawn. Speakers were George Marshall, Col. Crane, Department Commander Somers and the Hon. I.N. Pierce.

Business meetings of all the groups were at Filbeck Hotel, Fifth and Cherry streets, and visitors were assigned quarters at the German Methodist Church, southwest corner of Fifth and Mulberry streets. A public reception that night was at the Indiana State Normal Hall.

On the second day, the formal public opening was at the Grand Opera House. Nicholas Filbeck, chairman, introduced Mayor Louis Gerhardt who gave the welcoming address. The W.R.C. convened at Centenary M.E. Church, while the Ladies of the GAR met at the First Baptist Church.

After lunch, Terre Haute witnessed one of Indiana's largest military parades. GAR Commander in Chief Van Zant and other dignitaries watched the spectacle from a reviewing stand.

Historically speaking

Clark is Vigo County's officia historian anc formerly worked for The Terre Haute Tribune.

By Dorothy Clark
Special to The Tribune-Star

All the Civil War vets left in motor boats and automobiles to attend a fish fry at Fort Harrison. Later that night public camp fires were at Centenary Church and the Knights of Columbus Hall. There was music and speeches from both ex-soldiers and civilians.

On the last day of the encampment, the men met at the Grand Opera House for a business session, election and installation of officers and election of delegates to the National Encampment. The two women's groups had the same activities.

The big event was a naval battle on the Wabash River, the simulated capture of a fort representing Morro Castle and the blowing up of several war vessels. The military land forces included artillery, cavalry and infantry. Fifty motor boats and larger river boats also participated in the mock battle.

During this encampment, regimental reunions were staged in the city council chambers, the Superior Court rooms, Circuit Court rooms, Commissioners' office, the Commercial Club rooms and Krietenstein's Drug Store, corner of Fourth and Cherry streets.

The 22 organizations holding reunions were the 11th, 14th, 31st, 32nd, 43rd, 51st, 52nd, 59th, 71st, 85th, 97th, 149th and 159th Indiana Infantry; the 58th Indiana Regiment and Wagner's Brigade; the 84th Regiment Indiana Infantry; Wilder's Brigade; the First, Fourth, Seventh and 11th Indiana Cavalry the Eighth Indiana Battery; and the 18th Indiana Battery with Wilder's Brigade.

No county responded more promptly than Vigo County to the first call to Indiana for volunteers by President Lincoln to fight in the Civil War. Indiana furnished its share of the 75,000 men. Gov. Morton issued the call, and the first to respond and muster into service for Terre Haute and Vigo County were Companies C and D, 11th Indiana Volunteers.

With Captains Ogden C. Wood and Jabez Smith, they were mustered into service for three months on April 25, 1861, at Indianapolis under Col. Lewis Wallace.

Camp Vigo was organized on North Seventh Street near Collett Park in what was an early fairgrounds. Companies from the congressional district were concentrated here, and the first regiment organized was the 14th Indiana in May 1861 the first three-year regiment mustered in from Indiana, with Col. Nathan Kimball in command.

The 31st Regiment was next, mustered Sept. 15, 1861, with Col. Charles Cruft, who later became brigadier-general and major-general.

On Sept. 27, the 43rd Regiment was mustered in with Col. George K. Steele and Lt. Col. William E. McLean, who became colonel May 12, 1862, when Steele resigned.

A new camp was organized in July 1862 with Col. Richard W. Thompson in command. This training area known as Camp Dick Thompson was located east of the city on the old Bloomington Road, now Poplar Street.

Soon after the close of the Civil War, a fund-raising movement was begun to erect a monument honoring the military men of Vigo County and Terre Haute. Ground was first purchased for the site on North Third Street opposite Woodlawn Cemetery. Several years later this property was sold and the proceeds added to the fund.

About 1907 the county commissioners were petitioned to set aside a sufficient sum, with the accumulation on hand, to erect a suitable memorial on the courthouse lawn. It was this monument that the Indiana GAR dedicated in 1910.

The monument was built on the exact spot where the men stepped forward to sign the book and enlist in the Civil War, as the drums beat, the flags flew and the crowd cheered.
